6. Cultivates positive relationships and maintains effective communication with families and co-workers.
7. Communicates with staff, lead teachers, assistant director & director of licensed programs.
8. Oversees health habits in the classroom, i.e. handwashing, bathroom, etc. Administers first aid as needed. Checks indoor and outdoor environment for safety hazards.
9. Understands and implements the Washington Administrative Code to ensure program compliance.
10. Helps maintain a professional image and reflects the core values of Caring, Honesty, Respect and Responsibility.
11. Helps maintain program site and equipment.
12. Helps maintain required program records, daily logs and check lists.
13. Attends and participates in family nights, program activities, staff meetings, and Y trainings, including STARS continuing education.
14. Provides positive behavior management to promote developmental asset building.
15. Models relationship-building skills and encourages leadership by example in all interactions utilizing the Y's core character values.
16. Nurtures children through purposeful programming dedicated to building achievement and belonging, and relationships among youth and within families.
17. Responds to emergencies.
18. Performs other duties as assigned.

EXPECTATIONS:

1. Committed to Y's core values, child development and serving our community.

The Y: We're for youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility.

2. Dependable, warm, patient, kind and nurturing with children.
3. Ensures the safety and well-being of each child by responding to their environment, social and physical needs.
4. Initiative as a leader and positive role model/authority in the classroom.
5. Flexible; shares duties and information; follows classroom directions. Substitutes and assists others
6. Professional and customer service oriented. Innovative problem solver who collaborates with Y co-workers.
7. Communicates effectively with children, coworkers and families.
8. Reads and adheres to all YMCA and Child Development Department policies, processes and procedures.

QUALIFICATIONS:

The YMCA is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to strengthening communities to effect lasting, meaningful change. The execution of our mission requires substantial engagement of our entire community and is only attainable when diversity and inclusion are core to our planning, programming, staffing, messaging, organizational structure and partnerships.

We are committed to recruiting, developing and retaining diverse talent from the entry level to the Executive level. We also understand the need to have systems in place and ongoing cultural competence training to ensure that all people feel a sense of belonging and safety in order to excel in their contribution. We aim to address the services we provide and the suppliers and community partnerships we seek and support through a diversity and inclusion lens. We will know that it is working when the most marginalized groups are thriving as an integral part of the organization.

The Y: We're for youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility.
